

Session Plan (45 mins)

Should uncontacted tribes be left alone?

Timing	Activity	Slide(s)
N/A	Feedback: Allow students some time to read the feedback on the topic we did on sharenting.	2
3 minutes	Introduce the topic title, learning objectives, key words and issues to consider.	3-5
1 minute	Our new partner: Introduce SAPERE to the students and the concept of philosophy.	6
10 minutes	What do you think of these people? Ask the students to focus on the image and then thoughtfully consider how civilised they think the people are, use the concept line to share ideas. Then individually reflect on the activity and consider whether any views may be prejudiced.	7-8
4 minutes	Why are we talking about this? Begin by asking if any students recognise the pictures from the news. Then click to watch a video on this story.	9
5 minutes	Where do uncontactable tribes live? Reveal the map to show students where the tribes we are discussing live, click to watch a video if you want to learn more about some of the different tribes.	10
5 minutes	What threatens their survival? Look at slide 11 and discuss some of the threats to these tribes' survival, before introducing the main activity on when, if ever they should be contacted.	11
12 minutes	Is it ethical to leave uncontacted tribes alone? Over the next slides in groups, students should consider whether the situation presented to them means they should or shouldn't be contacted. Students should give reasons for their answers.	12-16
2 minutes	Reflection: Before voting reflect on the lesson and sum up whether they should or shouldn't be contacted.
N/A	Career launchpad: Students can use this to learn more about uncontacted tribes and also look at the role of a documentary filmmaker that specialises in portraying different cultures.	17
2 minutes	Yes/No summary: Encourage students to reflect on this topic before they vote.	18-19
